ST. LAWRENCE
CATHOLIC CHURCH
& NEWMAN CENTER

When they saw this, they made known the message that had been told to them about this child. All who heard it were amazed by what had been told them by the shepherds. And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart. Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, just as it had been told to them. Luke 2:17-20

Making disciples of Jesus as a university Catholic church

The angel of the Lord appeared to them and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were struck with great fear. The angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Messiah and Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger." - Luke 2: 9-12

"I wait for the LORD, my whole being waits, and in his word I put my hope."

Matthew Kukla, Daniel Johnson, and Alex Phillips at the 2021 Fall Retreat

"I first started coming around to St. Lawrence Catholic Church and Newman Center when I was a freshman. I came initially because of the mass obligation, with absolutely no intention of finding anything deeper; but God had different plans. The community God has built up around this church is truly remarkable; one where many come to realize the beauty of their Catholic faith; including myself. I want to wish you a joyous and blessed Advent; O Come, O Come Emmanuel!"

--Daniel Johnson
